The Catholic Church in Saskatchewan

The Catholic Church in the province of Saskatchewan has a long and noted history. Beginning with the arrival of the Oblates of Mary Immaculate at Ile-a-la-Crosse in 1846 missionary activities continued to spread the Catholic religion to all areas of that land. This included the establishment of schools, hospitals and towns. By 1900 Catholicism was well integrated in more than several communities and administered to persons of varying ethnicities such as French, German and Polish Catholics.

Regina, founded in 1882 when the Canadian Pacific Railway was being constructed, saw the parish of St. Mary's established almost immediately. St. Mary's was current over time reflecting the ever-changing needs of its Faith family.
